The Bible tells us that God created the world in six days and on the seventh day he rested. Flattening the world took a little longer. The world has been flattened by the convergence of ten major political events, innovations, and companies. None of us have rested since, or maybe ever will again...

(Thomas Friedman: The World is Flat, 2005)

So what are the new 10 Commandments

Commandment

1

Thou shalt not control thy neighbors ass

DoThis

*Buy*This

EATThis

*Wear*This

LOVEThis

Who is telling you what to do

Do I know you?

Do I trust you?

Do I want your opinion?

When was the last time you considered who was shaping how you think?

In a world where the TOP 5
advertising agencies
own television,

do you still want to watch it

Do I have a

CHOICE?

Buy TIVO and fastforward past the ads

Download an RSS reader and choose your influencers

Ask a nutritionalist what is good for you

Buy last month's clothes on eBay

Blog what you love

Why choose the media

when you can choose your medium

Thou

shalt

not lie

Your public rating is a reference of your character

I know where you live

Can you handle the truth?

I will blog about you

I am your big brother

If I google your name

what will I find

Have you taken control of how you want to be perceived?

Search tags
are big post-it notes on your back.

You are viewed as others
perceive you
to be.

You choose the choice of not choosing

Know Thyself

Why were you born?

What do
you bring?

How do you view
the world?

Do you care

You
have one life
to live

Step out and be bold enough to share your opinion. The world needs you. If you stay quiet or work within the norm what is society robbed of ?

Imagine
you
chose
to be
you.

You dressed like you desired, spoke what you thought, and promoted a way that is outside of the perspective of your peers.

Imagine if you were fearless and thought money to be purely utilitarian.

What would you do ?

Everyone

must be aware of and be judged by everyone else, and the opinions that the ignorant, dull and slow-witted hold about us are no less important than the opinions of the bright, the enlightened, the refined.

This is because man is profoundly dependant on the reflection of himself in another man's soul, be it even the soul of an idiot.

(Witold Gombrowicz)

Commandment

4

Thou shalt not sell thy services ●

Sky blue suits & brush cuts may have impressed the ignorant but in a time of unlimited information sales has been replaced by consulting.

If I sell my service you may buy it

If you need my service you will use it

Who wants what you've got?

How will they know where to find you?

You could design a brochure
and send it
to everyone
you know

or

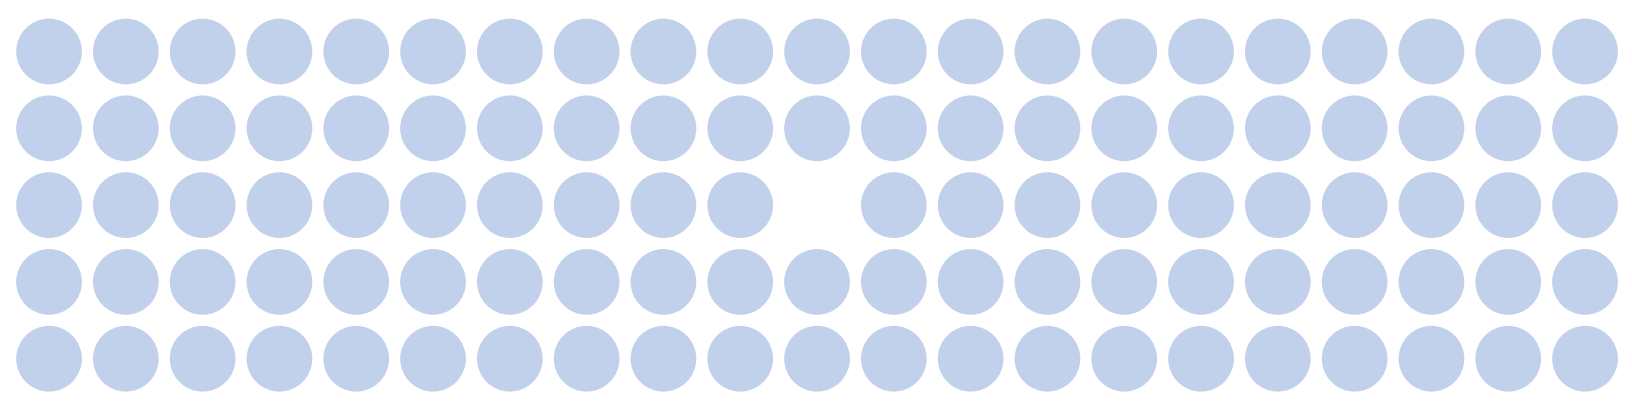

You
could find

one person

who needs your help

In a saturated market you can either get more aggressive in sales or get better at what you do.

If you invest your money to become better the rest is history.

If you invest in sales the future is unpredictable.

Be organic.
Don't do drugs.

Stay Connected

Context is everything

The
world in which you live has shaped the way that you think

Your world is small

Small is beautiful

We can expend
our energy trying to get connected to the right people

OR

Expend
our energy
among the people we are already connected with

think about it

If I like what you do I will tell my friends

If my friends like what you do they will tell their friends

If my friends' friends like what you do they will tell their friends

If my friends' friends' friends like what you do they will tell their friends

If my friends' friends' friends' friends' like what you do they will tell their friends

Imagine

a world where friends could tell friends about their friends

Imagine

a world where technology would allow me to read about my friends' friends

Imagine

if I could help my friends meet people I want them to meet

What is it they say about the six degrees

of separation ?

Know Thy World

Every second
a baby is born, every minute a new company is started,
every hour
someone falls
asleep ●

Eat your cornflakes,

smell the coffee

and

accept

a whole new world

The
newspaper
can no longer contain the amount of change
you will experience
today.

Your world is beyond
another's perception.
How will you remain
connected?

Many of us believe that we need to work harder
and read more
to stay in touch.
The problem lies in that we spend more time learning about someone else's world than we do
experiencing our own.

What is the name of the guy who runs the corner store?
Who is the lady who stands beside you at the bus stop?
What is the name of your kid's best friend?

We are connected
whether we accept it or not.

If

you choose to be present today
you will be relevant.

If

you choose to pause and live
you will experience some pain and joy.

you acknowledge that there is nothing more you can do to create more life you can stand back
and live it
with a deep peace that you are in the right place.

Relevancy

is submission to the world that surrounds
you

Commandment

7

Remember

to do

what you

say

you will do

Under Promise

Over
Deliver

Manage Expectations

Why put things off until tomorrow

when

procrastination

causes stress

and

ill health

Options:

1. Act on what you need to do now
2. Wait until tomorrow and think about it today 3. Hire your mom to nag until you give in Meetings...

meetings...
meetings...

So many meetings...

Do you act on decisions or do you just waste time making them?

Is it more productive
to act on something or just to know
the right decision?

Imagine a world were you just did what seemed obvious.

Sure you'd fail the odd day but not for long.

At least you would shape your discipline around action instead of meetings.

Knowledge + Experience = Wisdom

Act now and learn to be wise

Commandment

8

Remember to keep every day holy ●

To be holy

is to be set

apart

Be holy

and set yourself apart

from

crowd

The attention goes where the energy flows

What grabs your attention?

The more you focus on your competitors the more like them you will become

The more you work on your weaknesses the weaker you will be

Keep your eye on what you do best and keep developing it
Play to your strengths
until everyone talks about you

When you stick to what you're great at you remain fulfilled

The more fulfilled you are the more joy you bring

The more joy you bring the more contagious you become

The more contagious you become the more magnetic your force

Draw
the world
towards
you

Would you rather run around or get grounded?

Would you rather
please everyone or stand in security?

Would you rather
be hurried or act smart?

What is it you really need the most of to

succeed

Commandment

9

Give

more

away

It is better to give than to receive

Think about it:

Most of our goals
and strategies
are about making money and accumulating wealth
As a result
we expend our days
trying to gain with a smokescreen hope
that some day
we will get to give.

How much have you given away today ?

Imagine

if

we set our sights

higher

and got focused on what we will give away
and

then worked back from there.

Our milestones would have meaning and the coins would keep moving.

Others

would be moved by our mission and we would stay connected to our world.

Start
thinking about what's next

What would you do if everything came together?

What is the world calling you to?

What moves
you?

Stay fluid

Listen to the cries for help

Move towards the life and act small

Take it wherever it goes

Trust that there is something bigger

at play

Commandment

10

Be proud of your commitments ●

What are you
committed to for yourself?

What are you
committed to for your family?

What are you
committed to for your community? ●

Are you staying
true or selling out?

Why
do you keep saying
yes?

Are you hoping people will like you

more?

Every time you say YES to someone you are saying NO to someone else

Every time you say YES to something you are saying NO to something else

Who are you saying NO to?
What are you saying NO to?

Who gets the short end of the stick?

What is the world robbed of because you keep saying

Get ruthless

and get your eyes back on the world

Stay true

so that you can give more

Remain free

so that you can show up to the right things

Carry a camera

and start noticing more

Allow people

their own opinion

Do something

you love every so often

Laugh more
and show the world that life is worth living

One Life

One World

One Opportunity
